I was twenty-four years old
When I met the woman I would call my own
Twenty-two grandkids now growing old
In the house that your brother bought ya

(Irish music)

On the summer day when I proposed
I made that wedding ring from dentist gold
And I asked her father, but her daddy said no
You can't marry my daughter

She and I went on the run.
Don't care about religion.
I'm gonna marry the woman I love.
Down by the Wexford border.
She was Nancy Mulligan I was William Sheeran.
She took my name and then we were one
Down by the Wexford border.

(Irish music)

Well I met her at Guys in the Second World War.
She was working on a soldier's Ward.
Never had I seen such beauty before
The moment that I saw her.

Nancy was my yellow rose,
And we got married wearing borrowed clothes
We got eight children now growing old.
Five sons and three daughters.

She and I went on the run.
Don't care about religion.
I'm gonna marry the woman I love
Down by the Wexford border.
She was Nancy Mulligan and I was William Sheeran.
She took my name and then we were one
Down by the Wexford border.
(Irish music)

From her snow white streak in her jet black hair
Over sixty years I've been loving her.
Now we are sat by the fire in our old armchairs
You know Nancy, I adore you.
From a farm boy born near Belfast town.
I never worried about the King and Crown.
Cause I found my heart upon the southern ground
There's no difference. I assure you.

She and I went on the run.
Don't care about religion.
I'm gonna marry the woman I love
Down by the Wexford border.
She was Nancy Mulligan and I was William Sheeran.
She took my name and then we were one
Down by the Wexford border.
(Fantastic Irish music)
